

SCHOOL OF ACCOUNTING
UNIVERSITY OF UTAH

The University Of Utah School of Accounting is seeking to fill a tenure-track assistant/associate professor position in Accounting beginning Fall 2012, pending funding and University approval. We will consider any area of specialization.

JOB QUALIFICATIONS: Doctorate by August 2012. Commitment to quality research and teaching excellence is required.

GENERAL INFORMATION: The University of Utah has a lot to offer including:

- An excellent group of research colleagues
- Outstanding support for research including access to CRSP, COMPUSTAT, TAQ, IBES, SDC and Value Line data and several other databases through Wharton Research Data Services and here at the University of Utah. In addition, the college has a dedicated behavioral research laboratory
- A teaching load of 3 semester courses for research active faculty
- A very collegial environment including a great relationship with our Finance and Management departments
- An active research environment including an excellent workshop series and the annual Utah Winter Research Conference
- A competitive salary and benefits package
- A great place to live (Salt Lake City has been rated the #1 place to live in North America in the Places Rated Almanac).

APPLICATION PROCEDURE: While the position will remain open until filled, preference will be given to completed applications received before November 30, 2011. A completed application must include a letter, resume, dissertation proposal and/or a research paper, evidence of teaching effectiveness, and three letters of reference. Applications should be sent to:

Martha M. Eining
David Eccles Professor and Director
School of Accounting
David Eccles School of Business
University of Utah
1645 E. Campus Center Dr., Rm. 108
Salt Lake City, UT 84112

The University of Utah is fully committed to affirmative action and to its policies of nondiscrimination and equal opportunity in all programs, activities, and employment. Employment decisions are made without regard to race, color, national origin, sex, age, status as a person with a disability, religion, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, and status as a protected veteran. The University seeks to provide equal access for people with disabilities. Reasonable prior notice is needed to arrange accommodations. Evidence of practices not consistent with these policies should be reported to: Director, Office of Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action, (801) 581-8365 (VTDD).

The University of Utah values candidates who have experience working in settings with students from diverse backgrounds, and possess a [strong or demonstrated] commitment to improving access to higher education for historically underrepresented students.